

ADAPT Undergraduate Internship Programme 2019

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Institution/Team:	Intellectual Property/Commercialisation team (DCU/TCD/UCD/TUD/AIT/CIT)
Project Title:	YIPI – Yearly Intellectual Property Intern
Suitable for students who are studying in the following areas:	Innovation and Creative based disciplines, Law, Intellectual Property, Research.
Skills needed:	Organisation skills Familiarity with legal language Computer skills, MS Office or similar Some exposure to research and to innovation/creative environments
Project Description:	The Intellectual Property function at the ADAPT Centre is a busy activity providing legal support to the Centre. The Intern role will involve a considerable degree of change for which additional resources are required. This temporary role will assist in this change management project in all aspects of Intellectual Property from CNGL to ADAPT.
The Role of the student & benefits gained from participation in this project:¹	Practical experience of: drafting invention disclosures; drafting software disclosures; preparing licence agreements, drafting Non Disclosure Agreements; preparing submissions for patent filings; drafting commercial contracts, drafting marketing material for commercial exploitation of research outputs; reporting of commercial metrics to Science Foundation Ireland. Exposure to academic and commercial collaborative research environments in a large National Research Centre.
Who will be working with you?	The undergraduate student will be working closely with Gabriel Hogan, the Intellectual Property Manager. The student will participate in all our IP related activities.
Short description of the group:	Intellectual Property is part of the ADAPT Commercialisation team which comprises of 5 different management roles with the responsibility of commercialising the research outputs of the Centre.
Recommended Reading Material:	http://adaptcentre.ie/case-studies.html
Other information:	www.adaptcentre.ie
For further details on this project please contact:	Name: Gabriel Hogan Phone: +353 1 700 6720 E-Mail: gabriel.hogan@adaptcentre.ie Website: www.adaptcentre.ie

¹ This is an initial description of the role of the student and it is liable to change following discussions between the investigators and the student.